National Dance Day Party with live entertainment

Arthur Murray Palm Harbor students are invited to compete in our in-studio So You Think You Can Dance Competition. Dancers are invited to pick any style of dance they wish. Actors portray judges from the FOX television show, and offer critiques. The audience picks the winner and recipient of a $500 scholarship.

About National Dance Day

National Dance Day was created by Nigel Lythgoe, executive producer and judge for the So You Think You Can Dance television series on FOX. National Dance Day is an annual event and grassroots initiative to encourage the nation, young and old, to move!

The staff and students of Arthur Murray Palm Harbor have been actively participating in National Dance Day since the first celebration in 2010. In fact, in 2011 our studio was featured on So You Think You Can Dance for our work with Lighthouse for the Visually Impaired and Blind. Dancers have driven across the state to take part in our celebration! We hope you will join in the fun this year!
